Disclosure Statement

GENERAL. Securities transactions are recorded in your account on the settlement date shown on the confirmation for such transactions (except in the case of cancellations or corrections where processing dates are used). Cash received or paid and securities received or delivered are shown as of the date of the activity. Securities transactions having trade dates on or before the settlement date are shown as of the date of the activity. appear on your next statement. Securities purchased for or sold to you may be hypothecated under circumstances that permit the commingling thereof with other customer securities. Please advise Banc of America Securities LLC ("BAS") promptly in writing of any material change in your investment objectives or financial situation. If you are a customer of Banc of America Securities LLC and have a complaint, please call 1-888-221-9276 or notify us in writing at Banc of America Securities LLC, 40 West 57th Street, Attn: Compliance Department, Mail Code NY1-040-28-02, New York, NY 10019.

DISCLOSURES. BAS is a subsidiary of Bank of America Corporation, the parent company of several banking institutions. BAS is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and is a member of the New York Stock Exchange, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC"). From time to time, one or more affiliates of BAS may lend to one or more issuers whose securities are underwritten, dealt in, or placed by BAS. You are referred to the relevant prospectus, offering statement or other disclosure document for material information relating to any such lending relationship, and whether the proceeds of an issue will be used to repay any such loans. BAS may also from time to time participate in a primary or secondary distribution of the securities offered or sold to you by it. Further, BAS may act as a financial advisor to an issuer whose securities may be sold to you by it. With respect to transactions effected in shares of any money market fund and any other transactions listed in Rule 10b-10(b)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"), this statement is being provided to you in lieu of an immediate confirmation in accordance with Rule 10b-10 of the Exchange Act.

REVENUE SHARING AND OTHER FUND COMPENSATION. The Client Investment Strategies group ("CIS") of BAS offers its clients investments in the funds of a number of fund families. CIS may receive compensation from these funds and/or their service providers. Your CIS sales representative may benefit financially from this compensation. For more information, please refer to the Prospectus and/or Statement of Additional Information ("SAI") of the fund, consult your CIS sales representative or visit our web site at boca.com/envestments.

SECURITY INTEREST. BAS shall have a continuing security interest in all securities, funds and other assets now and hereafter held or carried by BAS in your account(s), including any property in transit or held by others on behalf of BAS, and all proceeds thereof, as collateral security for the payment and performance by you of all your obligations to BAS now existing or hereafter arising and whether arising under your securities accounts or any other agreement between you and BAS, together with all costs and expenses of BAS in connection therewith (the "Obligations"). If you fail to perform any Obligation or if you are in default on any agreement between us, BAS may cancel any transaction or may, in a private or a public sale, sell out or buy in the securities shown in this statement, holding you liable for any loss incurred. BAS shall have, in addition to the rights provided herein or by other applicable law, all the rights and remedies provided to a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code in the State of New York.

SECURITIES PROTECTION. BAS is a member of SIPC, through which customer accounts are protected, in the event of the firm's insolvency, up to $500,000, including a maximum of $100,000 for free cash balances. For further details, please see www.sipc.com. In addition to receiving basic SIPC protection, once such protection is exhausted, all client accounts are protected on the total net equity of the account, not to exceed $300,000,000 per account, or an aggregate of $1.2 billion. The term, "net equity," means the value of the securities and cash BAS owes you less any amount you owe our firm at the time a liquidation proceeding is commenced. This additional protection is provided in the form of a guarantee to BAS from its parent company, Bank of America Corporation, and is of the same type and nature as provided by SIPC, but at a higher limit. Neither SIPC nor the additional coverage is the same as or a substitute for FDIC deposit insurance, and they do not protect against declines in the market value of your securities. Securities purchased through BAS are not FDIC insured and are NOT deposits or other obligations of, or guaranteed by, Bank of America Corporation or any of its affiliates. An investment in securities involves risks including possible loss of the principal amount invested.

FREE CREDIT BALANCES. Securities held in segregation for your account by BAS or held by a securities depository, are commingled with the same securities being held for other clients. Your ownership of these securities is reflected on our records. Free credit balances and fully paid for securities are available to you on request. Free credit balances are not segregated and may be used by BAS to the extent permitted by Federal regulations.

MARGIN ACCOUNTS. You are entitled to receive securities purchased on margin upon full payment of any indebtedness to us. We reserve the right to limit margin purchases in accordance with our policies as modified from time to time and in accordance with regulatory margin requirements. Any market increases and/or decreases will be marked-to-market on the basis of the daily closing price. If this is a margin account, this statement may be a combined statement of your general account and of a special memorandum account maintained for you under section 220.8 of Regulation T issued by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. The permanent record of the separate account as required by Regulation T is available for your inspection upon request. For detailed information on BAS' both in lending practices, margin calculations, interest rates or charges, refer to your copy of the Account Agreement and Truth-in-Lending statement or contact the BAS Margin Department at (646) 733-4204. This statement should be retained as it may contain information to enable you to verify interest charges, if any, that may appear on subsequent statements.

OPTION ACCOUNTS. Special rules govern the operations of option accounts. You should carefully read those rules and understand them before opening an option account. A summary of this information is available upon request. Further, information with respect to commissions and other charges related to the execution of listed option transactions has been included in confirmations of such transactions previously furnished to you and such information will be made available to you promptly upon request.

SHORT ACCOUNT BALANCES. If you have sold securities which you do not own under the short sale rule, we have, in accordance with regulations, segregated the proceeds from such transactions into your short account. Any market increases or decreases from the original sale price will be marked-to-market and such increases or decreases will be transferred to your margin account. The daily closing price is used in determining any appreciation or depreciation of the securities sold short.

CALLABLE SECURITIES. Bonds and preferred stock that the issuer calls for early redemption will be selected impartially by lot from among all securities of that issue held in our name or in nominee name for our clients.

INTEREST, DIVIDENDS, SALE PROCEEDS. Although all figures shown are intended to be accurate, statement data should not be used for tax purposes. BAS is required by law to report to the Internal Revenue Service certain interest, dividend income and sales proceeds credited to your account. Dividends and interest payments may be subject to country specific withholding taxes.

"PAYMENT FOR ORDER FLOW" POLICY. BAS' policy is not to accept remuneration for directing orders to particular broker-dealers or market centers for execution.

PRICE/VALUATION/ESTIMATED FIGURES. Securities positions and/or foreign currency are valued at or about the close of the statement period. If prices/foreign exchange rates are available from reference sources deemed reliable. The month-end valuations of your portfolio are for guidance only and do not necessarily reflect prices at which each position could have been sold or, if short, covered on the valuation date, particularly in the case of inactive or infrequently traded securities. BAS cannot guarantee the accuracy of such information. Contact your Account Representative to obtain current quotations or if you have questions regarding statement account valuations.

ERRORS AND OMISSIONS. Please notify us in writing within five (5) days if you believe there is any error or omission in any transaction or balance reflected on this statement. Please include your account number when you notify us. Failure to notify BAS of any error or omission will constitute a waiver by you of any claim by you arising as a result of such error or omission.
